“Embrace Diversity”

Adam P. Blank
Motivational Speaker

Let Adam shine his light on your school community!

What can Adam do for you?

Adam is an individual with challenges of visual impairment, albinism and autism. He has a proven track record of inspiring audiences with his unique style, unbridled enthusiasm and love for life and people. He has brought audiences of teachers to their feet while reminding them of why they entered their profession in the first place. He has touched the hearts of children and teens with his personal story of overcoming adversity and self-acceptance. He has opened the eyes of his audiences to the impact of bullying and intolerance.

Adam is available to speak to large audiences on the following topics:

- “It’s About Me, It’s About You!”

This focuses on how educators change lives although the results may not immediately be obvious. He zeroes in on special services and their impact on the lives of the students that participate in them.

- “My Story of Empowerment: Meeting the Challenge.”

Adam’s inspirational story of overcoming obstacles will lead audiences to believe they can accomplish anything, regardless of their circumstances.

- “Finding My Way Out of a Dark Hole: A Tale of Bullying.”

An eye-opening journey from the perspective of someone who has been bullied for being different, yet with perseverance learned to embrace his differences and become a champion. He speaks directly to victims, bystanders, and bullies about the changes that need to be made to put an end to this crisis.

Why Adam?

Adam’s gift for motivational speaking was discovered when he was asked to explain the services he received while in public school to a group of Superintendents and School Board members at the Intermediate Unit 1 Convention in the Spring of 2013. He had such a positive impact on his audience that word spread quickly of his ability to convey his message like no one else.

Adam’s genuine warmth and compassion shines through on every word and will leave a lasting impression. His success in public speaking was recognized and featured on WPXI’s “Proud to Be From Pittsburgh” series. Adam also received the “Outstanding Young Citizen” Award of 2014 from the Trib Total Media for his accomplishments in volunteering and service and his ability to strive relentlessly to reach his goal to help others.

Adam speaks from the heart and people respond:

*“My cheeks hurt after watching Adam’s speech. I literally smiled, laughed, and cried – all at the same time.”
Nicole Scott, Speech Therapist*

“I am going to play a more active role and stand up for anyone who is getting bullied.” 5th grade student, North Strabane Intermediate School

*“As educators, we pay hundreds – even thousands of dollars for dynamic speakers for in-service. I just sat through the best I’ve ever heard – from one of our very own students. Adam Blank’s presentation was priceless.”
Donald Martin, Assistant Executive Director, Intermediate Unit #1*

*“I have been a teacher and counselor for around 30 years. I have never heard anyone speak who has been more inspiring to me.”
Brenda Caromano, Guidance Counselor*

*“No one can inspire like Adam. His message is powerful and it comes across loud and clear.”
Jenny Barney, Teacher of Visually Impaired*
