Meet Adam Blank!

Who is Adam Blank?

Adam Blank is an individual with challenges of visual impairment, albinism and autism. He is a gifted motivational speaker who has gained recognition for his passionate presentations to school districts and intermediate units throughout the state of Pennsylvania and Ohio. Adam also speaks with students and promotes his anti-bullying message with an interactive program.

Adam's gift for inspiring others was discovered in 2013 when he was asked to explain the public school services he received to a group of Superintendents and School Board members at the Intermediate Unit 1 Convention. He had such a positive impact on his audience that word spread quickly of his ability to uniquely convey his message. Adam's genuine warmth and compassion is contagious!

Dedicated to Motivating/Inspiring Others and Providing an Anti-Bullying Message to Students

Adam is available to speak to large audiences on the following topics:

- “Finding My Way Out of a Dark Hole: A Tale of Bullying”
An eye-opening journey from the perspective of someone who was bullied for being different. Adam shares his story and details how with perseverance, he learned to embrace his differences and become a champion. During this presentation, Adam speaks directly to victims, bystanders, and bullies about the changes that need to be made to put an end to the bullying crisis.
- “It’s About Me, It’s About You!”
This presentation inspires educators and reminds them that what they do changes lives, even though the results may not be immediately obvious. Adam zeroes in on special services and how they impact the students that participate in them.
- “My Story of Empowerment: Meeting the Challenge.”
Adam's inspirational story of overcoming obstacles will encourage audience members to believe they can accomplish anything, regardless of their circumstances.
